FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1877 passed through the period of National Holidays for the month, which have interfered not a little in their influence upon trade, it is fair to look forward to the coming month as one of brisker times, wherein the preparations for the holidays yet to come of joyous good will and happy feeling will be felt even in trade circles. The various stores devoted to Novelties, Toys and Christmas attractions have opened up their stocks for the season, apparently early in time for city selections, but none too much so for the benefit of orders or selections for the other Islands. The Christmas Auction sales also promise early and frequent opportunities for parties to make up stocks. The arrivals during the past week have been all from San Francisco, viz: Schr Cassle Hayward via Lahaina, schr Mary Swan via Hijo, and schr Minnehaha direct. The latter comes to enter the coasting service here, and is in size and appearance very much like the Haiku packet Wallele.

The departures since our last have been the Jos Perkins for Port Gamble, in ballast; the Christina for Callao, and Columbia for San Francisco, with their original cargoes, the two latter having completed their repairs.

Movements in shipping during the week show activity in the coasting trade. The schooner Energy, which arrived last week from Humboldt, we learn has been purchased by Messrs-TR Foster & Co., for the Punaluu route-and the Minehaha by A Frank Cooke, at figures said to be $6,000 for the former and $7,000 for the latter. We learn, incidentally, that the builder of the M E Foster has returned to Port Ludlow with an order to build another vessel for our inter-island trade These, with the steamer for Capt Hobron, by Tibbets & Sorenhere-will give us a very large and fine fleet of coasters; but all of those now in service seem to have no idle time on their Steamer Zealandia from the Colonies for San Francico will be due here on Tuesday next.

There are no definite advices as to when any vessel may be looked for from San Francisco, though the schr Widaros was advertised for this port by Williams, Blanchard & Co., when the steamer left. Brig W H Meyer would no doubt be laid on for return, with immediate disputch, and may be considered due by the latter part of next week.

The horrible atrocities perpetrated by Christians in Turkey can never be adequately described by any haman pen ; that of the recording angel alone has power to depict them in their true colors in the Book of Eternal Doom! Unfortunately, there can be no us from different quarters, on this subject. The correspondent of the Daily News, on the one hand, other, furnish terrible pictures of the brutality both of Bulgarians and Russians. It is instructive to read what those reports relate of Bulgarian and Russian barbarities. The Daily News correspondent

"The Bulgarians commenced operations by seizing every man, woman, and child of the Jewish community and forcing them into the synagogue and its courtyard, which seems to have been fenced off with iron railings. The richest men amongst them were then summoned by some of the Bulgarians and a demand was made for a large sum of money. Some de and a demand was made for a large sum of money. Some de-mur naturally arose for the moment, so the Bulgarians hast-ened the decision by firing between the railings into the crowd ed courtyard, eighteen people being killed at the first discharge. All the money in the possession of the men was given up then without further parley, the bodies of the dead being searched for their contribution. Next a demand was made for the Jew-erry of the women and the girts, and without waiting for its deligner, the cowardly Bulgarians valued in amount the elry of the women and the girls, and without waiting for its delivery, the cowardly Bulgarians rushed in amongst the shricking, terrified creatures, tearing off necklaces and bracelets, riogs and ear-pendants, and in many cases facilitating the operation by gutting off the ears or fingers of any miserable woman who could not quickly enough disengage her rings. This occurred on a Saturday, and the next day the Bulgarians devoted a small part to religious observance, and a great part to getting drunk, doing no active injury to imprisoned Jews, but positively refusing to allow the dead hodies of those who had been murdered to be separated from the living. On the Monday morning the synagegue was invaded by crowds of half-drunken ruffians, who seized all the young women and girls and outraged them in the sacred building, in the presence of their friends. The elder of the town, Aaram Ben Kanetti, the richest of the community, saw his two daughters seized in their friends. The elder of the town, Aaram Ben Kanetti, the richest of the community, saw his two daughters seized in their turn, and prayed that he might be spared the horrible sight by being killed at once. The response to his prayer was that two men who were armed with hayforks placed a prong in each ear, and threatened that if he attempted to turn away his head they would thrust them into his brain. It is declared that the maddened father then seized one of the forks, and that the maddened father then seized one of the forks, and thrust a prong into his own eyes rather than witness the shanneful outrage on his offspring; and, as he fell in agony at the feet of the Bulgarians who had him in charge, they mercifully ended his torment by prodding him to death with the fork.

After a long day's murder and outrage, the nine hundred were reduced to less than one-half, all the richest men having been killed, as also the young women and girls who had survived the horrible outrages to which they had been for hours sub-lessed. SATURDAY, DECEMBER 1. HIS MAJESTY the King left town for Kauai, per schooner Marion, on Tuesday last, to visit his estates on Kauai, travelling incognito.

On Thursday last, by invitation of His Excellency, the American Minister Resident, the Rev. Dr. Hyde, Superintendent of the Hawaiian Theological Institute at Honolulu, preached at the Fort Street Church the Thanksgiving sermon in honor of the day (November 29th) as recommended in the Proclamation of President Hayes. There was a large attendance of American citizens and others, including Consuls of Foreign Nations. The singing by the choir was excellent, the time-honored anthem, "My country, 'tis of thee!" being joined in heartily by the congregation. The discourse of Dr. Hyde was quite discursive, but abounded in remarkably good points and occasional bursts of brilliancy in rhetoric, son, and the schooner by Mr G Emmes, -now on the stocks | with apt allusions to current topics. We should much like to see it in print. We had almost forgotten to say that the text-a mere formula in these days it seems-is to be found in Deuterotaking domestic produce valued at $24,193.56. Schooner nomy, Chap. 8, verse 10: "When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which he hath given thee." The inference left upon the minds of most of the hearers of the Reverend Doctor's eloquent sermon was, that the "good land" was by their own fault, (as he said), if they do die,must give place, by "manifest destiny," to something superior. Except the usual Plymouth Rock exordium on such occasions, there was not

NOVEMBER 28th.

Last Wednesday was a public holiday, by government announcement, and during most of the day business generally was suspended and shops closed. There was a salute fired at noon from the battery on Punchbowl, and the Hawaiian Guards turned out in fatigue dress, with muskets for drill and field exercise, at Kulaokahua under command of Major Gulick, and really made a fine soldierlike appearance. These troops, preceded by the band of the government, directed by Mr. H. Berger, discoursing most soul-inspiring music, marched through the principal streets to their encampment and target ground on the plains; returning to the Armory at 5 p.m. For the refreshment of the memories of old residents as well as for the information of newcomers, we give herewith the " Declaration " of the two governments of France and England thirty-four years ago, which will explain the why and wherefore that the Hawaiians continue to observe November 28th, as a holiday. It being remembered, in the meantime, that in the month of March, preceding, the government of the United States had made a declaration virtually of the same effect

"Her Majesty, the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the French, taking into consideration the existence in the Sandwich Islands of a government capable of providing for the regularity of its relations with Foreign Nations, have thought it right to engage, reciprocally, to consider the Sandwith Islands as an Independent State, and never to take possession, neither directly or under the title of Protectorate, or under any other form, of any part of the Territory of which they are composed.

"The undersigned, Her Britannic Majesty's principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and the Ambassador Extraordinary of His Majesty, the King of the French, at the Court of London, being furnished with the necessary powers, hereby de-clare, in consequence, that their said Majesties take reciprocally that engagement. "In witness whereof, the undersigned have signed the present declaration, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms. "Done in duplicate at London, the twenty-eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord one

(Signed) AULAIRE. DEATH OF AN EARLY CONVERT.

The manifestations of divine mercy are no where more striking than in the lives of the good. When instances occur of a long life-time of piety, closing with the humble hope of a blessed immortality,-especially when the departed have lived in our midst,-it may be useful to bring them to the notice of the community, for the edification and encouragement of the living. In a country like this, so recently redeemed from pagan benightment, all good christians must rejoice to find that there are bright examples of true christian life to be met with amongst the native population of these Islands. Such a bright example may be recorded in the case of a venerable native Hawaiian woman, who departed this life on Nov. 27th, at Nuuanu Valley. Her name was Julia Kealoha; she had been a widow for the last twentyseven years, and she is supposed to have been in the eightieth year of her age at the time of her demise. She was born at Hamakua, on the Island of Hawaii, in the year 1798, as far as the taking sides." He also thought that " the country date can be ascertained. When thirty years of age, she became a member of the Mission Church of Lahaina, only a few years after the arrival of the first christian missionaries at these Islands. Emancipated Bondsmen of Turkey, and During half a century she continued a worthy member of the church; and she had the special privilege to be engaged for one half of her long life-time, in the same missionary family, that of the Rev. D. Baldwin. Her love of prayer and her exemplary conduct edified all those who knew her, and for this reason she was greatly beloved grounds to doubt the dreadful accounts which reach | by her pious Hawaiian brethren and sisters. During the whole course of fifty years, from her first admission to church-membership down to and the telegrams of the New York press on the her dying hour, never was there heard even one word of accusation or suspicion against her spotless christian reputation. Her death was like her life, holy and peaceful. She has gone to receive her eternal reward with the hope of a true | Copying Presses, Copying Books, Christian and a good and faithful servant of the Lord. To firm believers in the religion of the Christ, it must be both edifying and consoling to read the simple narrative of the earthly career of this poor old Hawaiian woman, a contemporary of the great pagan conqueror Kamehameha, and an eve-witness of the arrival of the first Christian Missionaries upon those then heathen shores, who occupied for fifty years the very holiest place in the fold of the Church, unnoticed by the multitude blindly bent upon worldly vanities, while she sought alone to lay up treasures incorruptible and eternal. Her edifying life and holy end may well claim a serious thought even from the most frivolous and worldly-minded, and it is a pleasing duty for us to record this bright example of a truly christian and virtuous life-how-

THE SUBMARINE CABLE.

In this world, it is an excellent plan for the guage, we think that our government should express its willingness without loss of time to bear a proportional share in the cost of the proposed submarine cable between New Zealand and San Francisco via the "Sandwich Isles." Such a step may greatly help on the negotiation. To think that there is even the most remote prospect of our having a cable is enough to turn the head of a cabbage. To intimate to both the governments of the White House and St. James' that we are heartily willing to contribute, as far as our means will allow, towards the cable scheme, would, we think, be considered a very handsome act on our part by those two big fellows, especially if it came spontaneously and unexpectedly from us little fellows. Let us show them that we appreciate their kindness, although they don't mean it exactly so.

Odd Fellowship.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows was first planted in these Islands on Dec. 10, 1846, by the institution of Excelsior Lodge, No. 1. It has grown and thriven, and is now one of the largest and most prosperous of the societies in Honolulu which may be properly styled "Friendly Societies," its object being declaredly Friendship the Hawaiian Islands, to which he and others and Brotherly Love. The Order owns a fine twohad come, and that the Hawaiian race,-dying story brick building on Fort street, the upper por tion being devoted to Lodge purposes and the lower let for stores.

On Tuesday evening last, at the regular meeting of Excelsior Lodge No. 1, a very interesting affair a bit of Americanism about the whole discourse. occurred, being the presentation by Noble Grand J. S. Gurney, in the name of the Brethren, to D. D. G. S. David Flitner, of the jarisdiction of the Hawaiian Islands, with a jewel and insignia. The N, G. spoke as follows:

Most Worthy Past District Deputy Grand Sire; Brother D. N. Flitner :- You have performed your last official act, and are now about to retire from active service, to enjoy a rest you so much need. Your duties have been arduous in the extreme; but we feel that in the discharge of your duties you have been just and impartial. Brother, it gives me pleasure to address you with a few words on this occasion in behalf of our Brethren in this jurisdiction. I can assure you we have always appreciated your valuable services, and as you are about to retire, it gives us pleasure to inform you of that fact. Brother, I would ask you this evening to turn with us, to look at this document at my back. Its looks are ancient. I see enrolled thereon the names of Brothers Flitner, Bartow and Parke. We look upon you as the Fathers of our Order in this jurisdiction. You have worked your way step by step to office, the highest that can be obtained outside of odge. Your first exalted position was that of Vice Grand of this Lodge; from that to Noble Grand; and then to Past Grand. In view of this fact, I am instrcted by the Brethren of our Order of this jurisdiction to present you with this beautiful jewel, the emblem of a Past Grand : you did not stop here. Your course was still onward and upward in the higher branch of the Order. You attained the rank of High Priest, Chief Patriarch and Past Chief Patriarch, and from that to D. D. G. Sire: and now, under the same instructions. I present you with this magnificent Scarf and Jewel, the emblems of a Past C. P. Wear them Brother, and wear them proudly. They are tokens of esteem from your brethren. May your conduct always be that of a true Odd Fellow; that you may never tarnish their lustre; and when at last you feel that the weight of years are upon you, and you are summoned to enter the Great Grand Lodge above, and stand in the presence of our Great Grand Srie of the universe, may your jewels be even more bril-

Bro. Flitner responded in a very feeling and appropriate manner. He is succeeded in the exalted office of D. D. G. S. of the Order in these Islands by P. D. D. G. S., W. C. Parke.

His forts would still command their passage. Russian war-steamers passing in and out would be at the mercy of their guns. So that even with the Russian conquest of Stambool the " Eastern Difficulty"-as it is called,-may be said to have only assumed a new phase. Once in Stambool, the Russian Czar would immediately see the necessity of taking the Asiatic banks of both straits, as welland thus the " Eastern Difficulty", would become even still more serious for England, with Russia taking a foot-hold on Asia Minor. "GOLD! Gold! in all ages the curse of man-
